

Chile

Which of the following statements about Chile is incorrect?

1. Chile is located in an active seismic region.
2. Flooding is frequent during autumn and winter (particularly between May and August).
3. Santiago has one of the worst air pollution problems in the world.
4. A high level of medical care is available throughout the country.

Diseases spread by insects are not generally a problem in this country, although dengue fever occurs on Easter Island.

True or False

Prevention of food and water-borne diseases include all except:

1. Eat food that are well cooked and served steaming hot.
2. Eating from street vendors only in urban areas.
3. Eat fruits, nuts and vegetables with thick skins, peels, or shells that you remove yourself.
4. Always wash your hands with soap before eating.

Vaccinations which may be recommended for travel to Chile include all of the following except:

1. Hepatitis A
2. Hepatitis B
3. Influenza
4. Typhoid
5. Yellow Fever

Hanta virus is present in most rural areas throughout the country.

True or False