

Ghana

Which of the following statements about Ghana is incorrect?

1. Heavy rain and flooding can occur in the rainy season which occurs from May to July and September to October
2. Travel after dark particularly outside the major cities, is extremely dangerous.
3. Adequate medical care is available in Accra but is substandard throughout the rest of the country.
4. Travel in local transportation such as tro-t ros and communal taxis are safe.
5. It is estimated that 38 % of sex workers in the capital city are HIV positive.

The Ghana government requires a yellow fever vaccination certificate for all travelers
True or False

Which of the following statements s about malaria in Ghana are incorrect?

1. Malaria risk exists throughout the country.
2. Malaria occurs only in the rainy season..
3. Mosquitoes that spread malaria cannot be avoided.
4. Anti-malarial medication is recommended.

Vaccinations which may be recommended for travel to Ghana include all of the following except:

1. Hepatitis A
2. Meningococcal
3. Polio
4. Typhoid
5. 1, 2. And 4.
6. 1. and 4
7. all of the above

Prevention of food and water-borne diseases include all except:

1. Use sealed bottles, chemically treated, filtered, or boiled water for drinking and for brushing teeth.
2. Eat food that are well cooked and served steaming hot.
3. Eating from street vendors only in urban areas.
4. Eat fruits, nuts and vegetables with thick skins, peels, or shells that you remove yourself.
5. Always wash your hands with soap before eating.