

Russia

Which of the following statements is incorrect?

1. Tourist facilities are well developed in most of Russia, many goods and services are available.
2. Medical care is substandard throughout most of the country including Moscow and St. Petersburg. Adequate evacuation coverage for all travelers is a high priority and in the event of a serious medical condition every effort should be made to go to Western Europe.
3. Russia has very strict rules on the importation of large quantities of medication and some medications regardless of the quantity.
3. It is a legal requirement that travelers carry their passports at all times.

There is no risk of Malaria in Russia.

True or False

Travelers staying longer than 1 month should have a pre-departure PPD skin test.

True or False

Prevention against food and water borne diseases include all the below except:

1. Vaccination against Hepatitis A
2. Vaccination against Typhoid
3. Avoiding consumption of raw foods
4. Eating from street vendors but only in urban areas.

Avian influenza H5N1 has occurred in poultry and humans in Russia.

True or False