

Taiwan

Which of the following statements about Taiwan is incorrect?

1. It is located in an active seismic zone.
2. Custom authorities may enforce strict regulations concerning temporary import of some medications.
3. Traffic congestion is severe in urban areas.
4. A high level of medical care can be found throughout the country.
5. Taiwan is a stable democracy.

Taiwan has a high prevalence of TB in the population. Travelers planning to stay more than 1 month should have a pre-departure PPD (TB) skin test

True or False

Prevention of food and water borne diseases include all except:

1. Vaccinations against Hepatitis A and Typhoid.
2. Avoiding undercooked and raw food.
3. Using only bottled water that is sealed and bottled or chemically treated, filtered or boiled for drinking and for brushing teeth.
4. Eating from street vendors only in urban areas.

Insect borne diseases found in Taiwan include:

1. Malaria
2. Japanese Encephalitis
3. Dengue fever
4. Lyme disease
5. 1. and 2
6. 2, 3, and 4
7. All of the above

Risk of trematode infection is present in Taiwan.

True or False