

Thailand

All the following about Thailand are true except:

1. The monsoon season extends from July to October.
2. By law tourist are expected to carry their passports at all times.
3. Substandard road conditions and disregard for traffic laws result in frequent accidents.
4. Tuberculosis is uncommon.
5. A high level of medical care is available in Bangkok.

The risk of malaria is limited to evening or nighttime exposure in rural forest/jungle areas infrequently visited by travelers.

True or False

The antibiotic Ciprofloxin should be used to treat traveler's diarrhea in Thailand.

True or False

Insect protective measures should be followed since mosquitoes, mites and fleas can transmit a variety of disease including all except:

- Dengue fever
- Malaria
- Japanese Encephalitis
- Polio

Prevention of food and water-borne diseases include all except:

1. Vaccination against Hepatitis A and Typhoid.
2. Eat food that are well cooked and served steaming hot.
3. Eating from street vendors only in urban areas.
4. Eat fruits, nuts and vegetables with thick skins, peels, or shells that you remove yourself.
5. Always wash your hands with soap before eating.