

Turkey

Malaria risk exists in Turkey May through October in the south and southeast.

True or False

The following is true except:

1. Turkey is located in one of the world's most active earthquake zone.
2. Non essential travel to provinces in the southeast of Turkey, including those in the border region between Turkey, Syria, Iraq and Iran due to unpredictable security concerns.
3. Turkey is a developing nation and is in the lower half of the world economies.

Avian Influenza H5N1 does not occur in Turkey.

True or False

Prevention of food and water borne diseases include all except:

Vaccinations against Hepatitis A and Typhoid.

Avoiding undercooked and raw food.

Using only bottled water that is sealed and bottled or chemically treated , filtered or boiled for drinking and for brushing teeth.

Eating from street vendors only in urban areas.

Travelers are often in areas where prompt, effective medical care is unavailable.

Therefore, it is often more practical to self-treat bacterial travelers diarrhea with antibiotics that have been prescribed and purchased before the trip.

True or False

