

APPENDIX B
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
USE OF THE UNIVERSITY'S NAME
STATE OF CALIFORNIA EDUCATION CODE, SECTION 92000

The name "University of California" is the property of the state. No person shall, without the written permission of the Regents of the University of California, use this name, any abbreviation of it or any name of which these words are a part in any of the following ways:

1. To designate any business, social, political, religious, or other organization, including but not limited to, any corporation, firm, partnership, association, group, activity, or enterprise; or
2. To imply, indicate or otherwise suggest that any such organization, or any product or service of such organization is connected or affiliated with, or is endorsed, favored or supported by, or is opposed by the University of California; or
3. To display, advertise, or announce this name publicly at or in connection with any meeting, assembly, or demonstration, or any propaganda, advertising, or promotional activity of any kind which has for its purpose or any part of its purpose the support, endorsement, advancement, opposition, or defeat of any strike, lockout, or boycott, or of any political, religious, sociological, or economic movement, activity or program.

Nothing in this section shall interfere with or restrict the right of any person to make a true and accurate statement of his or her present or former relationship or connection with, his or her employment by, or his or her enrollment in, the University of California in the course of stating his or her experience or qualifications for any academic, governmental, business, or professional credit or enrollment, or in connection with any academic, governmental, professional or other employment whatsoever.

Every person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.
