¿Qué pasa Raza?

CLRC Undergraduate Program

Issue 2

December, 1995

Q-vo Raza

¿Como están? Hopefully you are studying hard and getting ready for finals. Well, we want to remind you that even though our main purpose at the University is to educate ourselves through academics we also need to get involved with the Chicano/Latino community on and off campus. This is the main reason why we created CHISME. Put this newsletter to use and take advantage of all the programs, activities, and money that are out there for you. Otra vez we want to inform you that this newsletter es de ustedes (believe it or not this is yours) so please, if you have any comments or information that we can put in CHISME come by Casa Latina at Merrill College and drop off your information with Elvia or call Larry at X5608.

¿Y quién es Larry Trujillo?

Good question! Well Dr. Larry Trujillo is this Vato Loco that we took from UC Berkeley. In other words este Homeboy knows what's up with La Raza today. While he was at UC Berkeley for almost twenty five years he taught many courses in Chicano Studies as well as other disciplines. Besides being a dedicated Professor, he was also involved in the Chicano/Latino student body at UCB. So here at UC Santa Cruz he will be taking part in the creation of the new undergraduate program at the Chicano/Latino Research Center (CLRC) as Director of this program. But that's not all, we will also have the opportunity to see him in action [as a Professor]. Dr. Trujillo will be teaching a course in Community Studies called "Chicanos in Social Change." Take the time to go check it out!

Chicano/Latino Convocation at San Francisco

This past month a group of CLRC faculty and students attended the annual Chicano/Latino convocation which was held in San Francisco. Overall we were all impressed by the keynote speaker Rev. Jesse Jackson. As always he was a charismatic and enthusiastic speaker who rallied everybody by keeping "Hope Alive." His presence reminded us about how important it is to form coalitions among other groups. Rev. Jackson urged that "forming coalitions with progressive forces to fight against the 'Contract with America'", is critical to advancing nuestra causa.
