¿Y ESP qué es?

Estudiantes para la Salud del Pueblo (ESP) is an organization determined to bridge campus with the Santa Cruz community. Serving as a support and service group for the Chicano/Latino community, ESP has made a commitment to promote Chicano/Latino representation at institutions of higher education and to improve the lives of Chicano/Latinos attending UCSC. Through outreach programs, ESP has educated many high school students. ESP, in collaboration with other organizations, is currently working on an education drive designed to educate and encourage students to pursue higher education. Si hay alguien quien quiere ayudar llamen a Sobeida o Juani @ 429-5657. Or email <sobi@cats> or <juanipst@cats>.

¿Y Quién es Diana Martinez?

This is a committed mujer that has been working and helping many students all over campus. Through SAA/EOP, Financial Aid and currently at Student Affairs. But that's not all she was also a preceptor at Stevenson and Merrill Colleges. Pero esperen falta más, she is currently an undergraduate student here at UCSC and will obtain her B.A. in Economics in June 1996 (¡Felicidades Diana!). Como dice Diana, "I feel that it is very important that we all support each other...We need to do more interacting within our community and think about building alliances with each other...I feel very optimistic that the alliances are stronger than ever."
