CRLC Undergraduate Program

November 1995

CHISME is a monthly publication to inform you, la gente, about academic support services, scholarships, fellowships, internships, and co-curricular activities which will facilitate your academic success at UCSC. The new Chicano/Latino Research Center Undergraduate Program is dedicated to: helping you further sophisticate your research skills; develop and showcase your research projects; provide the inspiration and resources for you to pursue graduate studies; and, generally improve Chicano/Latino undergraduate retention rates. For more information call Larry Trujillo, undergraduate coordinator, @ x5608.
